Introit

But you, O LORD, do not be far off! O you my help, come quickly to my aid! Save me from the mouth of the lion! You have rescued me from the horns of the wild oxen! My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning? All who see me mock me; they make mouths at me; they wag their heads;	“He trusts in the LORD; let him deliver him; let him rescue him, for he delights in him!” Be not far from me, for trouble is near, and there is none to help. But you, O LORD, do not be far off! O you my help, come quickly to my aid! Save me from the mouth of the lion! You have rescued me from the horns of the wild oxen!

Each Sunday we will be challenged as a congregation to memorize a single verse of Scripture. The verse will come from one of the lessons for the following Sunday and we will recite it together the following Sunday.

This week's verse to recite is:

Philippians 2:8

<sup>8</sup>And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

This week's verse to memorize is:

Job 19:25 ~ (memorize for Sunday, April 16)

<sup>25</sup>For I know that my Redeemer lives,
and at the last he will stand upon the earth.

For a sheet you can take home with you with all of the verses for the current month, please look in the narthex.
